Definitions

- “Number of Students Who Began the Program” means the number of students who began a program who were scheduled to complete the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year and excludes all students who cancelled during the cancellation period.
- “Students Available for Graduation” is the number of students who began the program minus the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or been called to active military duty.
- “Number of On-time Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year.
- “On-time Completion Rate” is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- “Graduates Available for Employment” means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.
- “Graduates Unavailable for Employment” means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.
- “Graduates Employed in the Field” means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
- “Placement Rate Employed in the Field” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.
- “Salary” is as reported by graduate or graduate’s employer.
- “No Salary Information Reported” is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

You have the right to cancel your Enrollment Agreement with BHDI and obtain a refund of charges paid including any unused equipment or other goods and services included in the Agreement, until midnight of the first day of class, or the seventh calendar day after enrollment, whichever is later.

Cancellation shall occur only when you give written notice of cancellation to Beverly Hills Design Institute at the address shown on the top of the first page of the Enrollment Agreement. You can do this by mail, email, hand delivery or telegram to the attention of the Registrar.

If the Notice of Cancellation is sent by mail, it becomes effective as of the postmark, if properly addressed with proper postage.

The written notice of cancellation need not take any particular form and, however expressed, it is effective if it shows that you no longer wish to be bound by the Agreement. You can request a cancellation form through the BHDI Registrar office, however you can use any written notice that you wish.

If the school has given you any equipment or supplies, you shall return it to the Administration office in unused condition, within ten (10) days following the date of your notice of cancellation. If you fail to return this equipment or supplies within the 10-day period, the school may deduct its documented cost for the equipment or supplies from any refund that may be due to you. Once you pay for the equipment or supplies, it is yours to keep without further obligation.

If you cancel this Agreement, the school will refund any money that you paid, less any deduction for unused equipment or supplies not timely returned and non-refundable application and registration fees, within 45 days after your notice of cancellation is received.
